

Valentine's Date Night Boxes

The Greeks, who gave the world Eros and Aphrodite, know a thing or two about love. The myths are filled with love stories, but in real life the practical matters, too. Ever-wise, the Greeks say that "hungry bears don't dance," a euphemism for the need to be sated first with good food before attempting to be sated otherwise!

We're offering up a menu of sensual foods sure to appeal to every...appetite. This selection includes a bottle of fizz and a sensual dessert. For only £64.95 per box (for 2 people) we've even included free delivery so you lovers can stay in for the whole night.
